CH. 20 COMPOSITIONS

1. THE MONKEY AND THE FISHERMAN

Two fishermen were throwing their nets into the river and a monkey on the branches of a tree watched their actions with interest. At midday, the men went off to eat and left their nets on the river bank intending to use them again after lunch.

The monkey came down from the tree, picked up one of the nets and tried to throw it as he had seen the men do. The only thing he succeeded in doing, however, was to imprison himself completely in the tight net.

“Now” said the monkey. “I have learnt that it is better to leave certain things to those who know how to do them.

Dear Mom

I know you would be annoyed by my behavior. I did not behave well with you. Neither I cleaned my room nor listen to you. I fought badly with my younger brother too. I was disturbed today.

I know being a elder brother I was not suppose to fight for petty things. You did not scold me for my rudeness. I am really feeling shameful for my behavior. I even promise you never to disappoint you in future.

Yours loving son

Dear Rohini

I hope you will be excited for the coming weekend. I am excited too. I have made a plan to go on a desert safari. I have booked a cab as well as a guide.

I wanted to visit this place since last year. But due to the busy schedule of all family members it could not be made. This week we have number of holidays.

I would like you to join us on this trip. There will be great fun and adventure on this desert safari. Do reply me to confirm your ticket. Give regards to uncle and aunt.

Yours loving friend

Dt: 14 th Feb xxxx

Dear Father

I hope you are fine along with grandpa and grandpa. I enjoyed the cookies sent by mom last week. I know you are busy with a new task in your office.

My class is going on a picnic to a beach. I would also like to go there with my friends. My teacher asked to get the permission from you. This picnic will last for a day, where we will be told about many sea creatures. We will also enjoy some horse rides there.

I hope that you would grant permission to me to enjoy this wonderful picnic.

Give regards to grandpa and grandma.

Yours loving son

Dear Father

I hope you are fine. I know it would have taken a lot of time to accept my poor performance. I have really disappointed you this time.

I have wasted my time a lot and did not pay attention to studies. I was totally focused on playing football. I understand the importance of academics results.

I wanted to win the inter school tournament therefore spent all time in practicing. I feel sorry for it. But I promise you that from now onwards I will complete my syllabus on time and give ample time to revision.

I look forward towards your motivation in my journey. I will be waiting to receive few words from your side.

Yours loving son

Dear Friend

I hope you will be enjoying your summer break at your maternal grandma's home. I know you always pay visit to her home in summer breaks.

Next month, we have planned to go to Srinagar on vacation. This place is known for its majestic beauty and streams. In order to beat the scorching heat and make this vacation memorable. I would like you to join us along with your family members. We will enjoy lots of water rides and adventurous sports.

Do confirm me your visit by writing to me. I look forward for your company.

Yours Friend

Dear Brother

I hope you are enjoying the spring season in Europe. I also look forward to spend some time with you. I became excited to see your alarm clock on my birthday. I really wanted a good one to make me awake on proper time. I always hated alarm clock with shrill sound. This time, I have got my best design and sweetest sound.

My friends also admired it very much. I am thankful to you for fulfilling my wish and make my birthday a special day.

Hope to meet you in the coming summer breaks.

Yours loving

Dear Sir

I would like to draw your attention to the problem of back benchers. I have been placed in the last bench in the seating arrangement, but I am having problem with my sight. I cannot see the black board owing to my myopia.

It is affecting my class performance and I am not able to note down the class work properly.

Therefore, I would earnestly request you to change my seat and allot me a front seat.

Thanking you

CH. 23 PARAGRAPH WRITING – LET'S DO (A)

1. THE BEST BOOK I HAVE EVER READ

Our school library is having books which I like very much. One of my friends showed me a certain book in the library and he said that it his favorite book.

I borrowed 'Adventures of Huckleberry Finn' written by Mark Twain from the librarian.

It was a wonderful book full of adventures. The main character was Huckleberry Finn who was a poor boy whose father wanted to get his son's fortune .But Finn ran away from the custody of his father and meet another boy, who happened to bring fortune in his life. The language of the book and illustrations were very nice. This is one of the best book I have ever read.

2. MY GREATEST WISH

All of us have our own wishes. However, it may differ from person to person. I love to become a Chef. A very known one. I love cooking and I always watch my mom making dishes. It is such a pleasure to see her make dishes and bring in out great flavorful and mouth watering dishes, even with the little ingredients left in the kitchen.

She has motivated me that, making great food and satisfying hunger of many is the greatest joy that one could attain. When we make food with all the love and passion, it just turns out great and serving them to our loved ones, is beyond ecstasy is what my Mom always says.

3. A MEMORABLE VACATION

Last year we went to Udaipur in summer. It was for the first time I was ever visiting a city of Rajasthan. I had heard a lot about the culture and golden heritage of Rajasthan which is very colorful and vibrant. We stayed in a resort situated near a lake.

The sight of the lake was very magnificent from the balcony of the room. We hired a tourist guide and went to visit some famous forts. The painting on the walls captivated my heart. We happened to see the blue pottery art of the local people. The tribes played melodious music. We were served with the mouth watering dishes of Rajasthan. The camel ride was indeed the best part of my trip. It made my vacation a memorable one.

4. MY STRANGE DREAM

Once I was asleep and having the strangest dream. I was in a room. The door was locked with chains, the window was boarded shut, and the light bulb was smashed. I sat up and looked around. There was a creature with bloody colored eyes. I got scared and stood up and grabbed my hands. The scary creature bit right in the middle of my pointer finger and my thumb. I screamed and it stopped. When I looked back I saw something run out of the room.

But most creepy, I went outside and looked over and saw the bloody creature again. This time it was about to attack me with its paws with nails as sharp as a nail. I closed my eyes tightly and knelt down, that's when I woke up. I had decided never to mention my weirdest dream with anyone in my family.

5. A BURNING HOUSE

It was 12 o'clock midnight. I just finished my studies. I was about to go to my bed. Suddenly I smelt smoke. I was frightened and I checked all things in my house. Lastly, I went to my balcony, I saw there was a fire in my neighbor's house, I did not know what to do. I took the phone and called fire brigade. After that I woke up my parents. Everyone feared that fire would spread the whole locality. Many people were running with buckets full of water and bags full of sand. Soon, the firemen arrived. They started throwing water with their pipes. They entered the burning house and helped the family to come out safely. It took about half an hour to control fire. Luckily, there was no loss of life. Whenever I am reminded of the scene, my heart begins to sink.

CH. 24 STORY WRITING (C) 1.

Once upon a time, on a dark and dreary night a blind man was seen walking down the street. He was carrying a burning lamp. It looked very strange to see a blind man holding a lamp on the odd hours of night. The light had no meaning for the blind man as he himself was not able to see. Two passers by mocked him by saying what was the use of carrying lamp. The blind man did not lose temper rather he replied calmly. He said that the lamp was of use to the careless fools and ignorant people who could cause danger to the lives of other people. Else people would have not noticed him in the dark as them.

2. NO PAINS, NO GAINS

There was a little girl called Munni. Her dream was to read and write .. She wanted to join a school. She belonged to a poor family who was helpless. The village school was located across the river. Munni made her mind to join the school and attend it regularly. She collected wood and requested her father to make a raft with planks of wood. Her father prepared a boat. He would row her across on the raft everyday. She was extremely happy as her dream was going to be fulfilled. She toiled hard and concentrated on her studies. She regularly revised her lessons that her teachers taught her. She was very dedicated towards her work. When other children would be having fun she was seen sitting quietly in the classroom, reading her lessons. She did well in her exams. She passed with flying colors. She received a scholarship and decided to pursue higher education in a good college. If she had not taken any pain, she would have not gained.

3. BIRBAL'S KHICHDI

On a cold winter day Akbar and Birbal took a walk along the lake. A thought came to Birbal that a man would do anything for money. He expressed his feeling to Akbar. Akbar then put his finger into the lake and immediately removed it because he shivered with cold. Akbar said, "I don't think a man would spend an entire night in the cold water of this lake for money." Birbal replied, "I am sure I can find such a person." Akbar then challenged Birbal for finding such a person and said that he would reward the person with a thousand gold coins.

Birbal searched far and wide until he found a poor man who was desperate enough to accept challenge. The poor man entered the lake and Akbar had guards posted near him to make sure that he really did as promised. The next morning the guards took the poor man to Akbar. Akbar asked the poor man how he managed to spend the night in the lake.

The poor man replied that there was a street lamp nearby and he kept his attention affixed on the lamp away from cold. Akbar then refused to give him the promised reward. The poor man went to Birbal for help. The next day, Birbal did not go to court. The king wondering where has he gone. He sent a messenger to his home. The messenger came back saying that Birbal would come back only once his khichri was cooked. Finally the king decide to go to Birbal's house.

Akbar found Birbal sitting on the floor near some burning twigs and a bowl filled with khichri hanging five feet above the fire. The king and his attendants couldn't help but laugh. Akbar then asked, "How can the khichri be cooked if it is so far away from fire?"

Birbal answered, "the same way the poor man received heat from a street lamp that was more far away. The king understood his mistake and gave the poor man his reward.

4. UNITY IS STRENGTH

Once upon a time an old man lived with his five sons in a village. The five sons were hard workers still they quarrelled among themselves. The old man tried a lot to unite them but he failed. Months passed by and the old man fell sick. He told his sons to stay united, but they did not listen to him. So, he decided to teach them a practical lesson so that they would forget their differences and stay united. The old man called his sons. He told them, "I will give you a bundle of sticks. Separate each stick and you will have to break each stick into two. The one who breaks the sticks quickly will be rewarded more." The sons agreed. The old man gave a bundle of twenty sticks to each of them and asked them to break each stick into pieces. They broke the sticks into pieces in minutes.

Again, they started to quarrel among themselves as to who came first. The old man said "Dear Sons, the game is not over. Now I will give another bundle of sticks to each of you. You will have to break the sticks as a bundle not as a separate stick.”

The sons agreed and tried to break the bundle of sticks. Though they tried their best, they could not break the bundle. They held to complete the task. The five sons reported their failure to their father. The old man replied, “Dear Sons, See! You could easily break the single sticks into pieces but you were not able to break the bundle! So, if you stay united nobody can do any harm to you. The five brothers understood the power of unity.

5. A MAGIC PENCIL

One day I was jogging in the park in the evening. I came across a beautiful pencil. First I searched for its owner by asking every child in the park. When everyone refused then I could not resist the temptation of writing with it. I secretly kept it inside my jacket and rushed to my home. I sat down to write something on a piece of paper. Since childhood, I had a great passion of drawing so I drew a flower vase with it. To my surprise, a flower vase appeared in front of me. To check again, I drew some mangoes. The delicious mangoes appeared again.

Whatever I see, appeared in front of me. I soon understood the power of the pencil. Indeed it was a magic pencil. I could not believe that I had such a magic pencil. I decided never to tell anyone about it. I was feeling little hungry so drew some chocolates and pastries again. I satisfied my hunger with yummy chocolates and pastries. I kept it hidden from other at a safer place. I thanked god for it.

The Superintendent Of Police
Ashok Nagar
Mumbai

Sub: To control the growing thefts in Ashok Nagar locality.

Dear Sir

I want to draw your attention to the growing menace of thieves in my locality.

The policemen are hardly seen in this crowded locality. Taking advantage of the absence of the police around, some anti-social people are freely indulging in thefts and robberies.

During this week as many as five thefts have taken place during noon time. No house which is even locked for few hours during the day is safe. Burglary too is on the increase.

I request you to take immediate steps to curb this tide of insecurity.

Thanking you

Yours truly
